*This is a co-sponsored activity of the Central Ohio Consortium of Sigma Theta Tau International. The speakers and planners report no conflict of interest. No off-label use will be presented.
The vision of the Honor Society of Nursing, Sigma Theta Tau International is to create a global community of nurses who lead in using knowledge, scholarship, service and learning to improve the health of the world’s people. Founded in 1922, its global reach extends to 486 chapters in 85 countries. The Central Ohio Consortium is proud to host Founders’ Day on October 24, 2013 at Mount Carmel College of Nursing, as we welcome Ilene Lattimer, RN, OCN, CCRC. Ilene has been a nurse for over 40 years, 25 of those years have been in Oncology nursing. She is a Certified Clinical Research Coordinator and has conducted Phase I, II, and III clinical research trials. She has twice received the Columbus Chapter of the Oncology Nurses Society Presidents Award. She is currently working as a Clinical Research Specialist Nurse in Clinical Cancer Genetics at the Ohio State University Comprehensive Cancer Center.
